Jack Buecker called the meeting to order. Jack showed pictures and the R+L ,,,,Matt Kenseth..... # 17 race car that was at his Warehouse. He explained what it was like standing next to 850 horse power as it was started and taken to 4000 RPM.
.....DEAFENING !

Jack then said this was the election meeting for the 2010 year . He asked if there were any candidates from the floor for any offices. There were none . A motion was made by Jim Syphax to retain the current officers for next year. It was seconded by Dan Smith.

Doug took the floor to discuss upcoming events . The Christmas party will be December 11 at Highland Country Club at 6:30 PM. Please call Doug & Jesse at 859/ 441-1110 and leave a message to confirm your attendance. A flyer will also be sent out .

Doug is going to form an event committee next year We discussed a number of possible events for next year. We try to have at least on run every month. If you are interested in helping with this committee please tell Doug.

Doug then talked about possible things to do if you are storing your car for the winter. We also discussed possible solutions for Jack's C6 Top noise.... and Bill's problem with his lights for his C5. The corvette Forum is a great place to get suggestions for repair.

Jon Hanas gave us an update on finance . We have $4600 in the treasury. We have 57 paid members for 2010 and 19 yet to pay. Cut off for dues is December 31, 2009.

Charlie is MIA again in Naples. He will not get an increase in pay for 2010.

Eric Eubanks has decided to sell his 2009 Z06 with 2700 miles and his 1994 ZR1 to buy a new ZR1 . If interested call him at 513.598-6187. We will put pictures on our web site. Larry Walters is also selling his 2000 C5 if interested.

Jack then adjourned the meeting.
